Welcome to our Final Sale

As time goes by one's past somehow controls your future

to a point. But as it hurts to write this it is time to downsize the purebred herd of nearly 25 years. These outstanding females have grown as my kids with never a moment of disappointment. As life seems to get busier by doing less! It's only an excuse when people say they are too busy. I've chosen to go the commercial route as my heart has always been with livestock. Hoping to simplify my life just a little with the custom fencing, bush cutting, cattle processing and baling I'm thinking a few more slow days are in order to prolong one's life. These girls are all home grown genetics and have yet to blossom, yet they are awesome Angus mothers! With 12 cow families dating back to 1995 the family tree has definitely branched out! I know the potential these cattle possess and they will help the development of your herd. Living in a society that only pushes forward it's time for some reflection. The Chatalaine's, Blackcap's, cow family has now grown to six and seven generations. The little ranch that "could" has sold nearly 400 bulls and females through the years. The bulls will still be available through private treaty as the older girls are being retained to finish their careers off here. The cattle are developed for longevity, feet, udder quality and disposition. Double P Angus has always bred with quality in mind but refused to choose the latest fads which could sometimes cripple a herd for years. At the progression to start the herd we hand picked from most everywhere. The docility these cattle display makes them a pleasure to work with throughout the year and comes well received from our customers. Funny stat, I had to start buying commercial cattle to finally get a bent gate. These females have the capability to bring much profitability to whoever takes them home. I only hope they bring you as much pleasure as they have brought to me and my family. Double P Angus was built with the sweat off the brow mentality back in the 90's I needed to prove and point out that the youth could enjoy the simple pleasures that come with the cattle. We've enjoyed attending a few commercial cattle shows winning Reserve Champion Pen of 3 three times at Edam Fall Fair then Grand Champion Pen of 2 and Grand Champion Pen of 3 at the Lloydminster Bull Sale. We sold bulls at the Standard Hill Connection Bull and Female Sale for 10 years soaking up many peaks and valleys in the market. With the many repeat buyers this herd has helped with calving ease, growth, longevity, udders, feet and docility. We would like to thank our past customers, friends and neighbours over the years it has been a slice! Join us December 3rd at Northern Livestock Sales where we will wind down one section of life and move on to the next.

JAKE & CHANTEL

WITH A CHAPTER CLOSING on Double P that started 25 years ago when the first purebred females were purchased to today when the sale offering all traces back to the original purchases. All the females selling are home raised and are a direct result of the culling that has taken place over the years. When Jake talks about culling for feet, udders and disposition this herd of females are a great representation of that. When cattle are used to only a few people meandering through them from day to day they become aware when a stranger is amongst them, it didn't matter one bit. The various times walking through the cattle they were not bothered and were easily moved and evaluated with no cares. This cow herd doesn't see any special treatment, just managed the way any commercial breeder would manage their cows. This hard working set of cows will go on and make their new owners money over the next number of years due to their overall soundness. What I find most interesting is that the cow herd really carries a similar look to them and their makeup. One can appreciate anybody that is willing to beat their own drum and when it came to the herdsire selection Jake was more worried about the next piece of the puzzle rather than making sure it was a hot pedigree or not. I was told years ago that the cattle are like their owners, that took a number of years for me to understand but that statement rings true right here with the Double P cows. Jake and Chantel have a custom fencing business which keeps them busy from April to December as well as the brush cutting to clear fence lines and pathways. This leaves the cows to work on their own and do what the Angus cow is supposed to do....be a good mother cow.

It's been an absolute pleasure working with Jake and Chantel and the cows, we invite you to join us Monday December 2nd at Northern Livestock Sales to preview the offering and take some time to visit with Jake regarding the cows. Join us Tuesday, December 3rd for the sale. If we can be of any assistance regarding this program and the cows feel welcome to contact us, we would be happy to hear from you!

SEE YOU SALE DAY! - SHANE CASTLE
